Re: Height of Structures

Effective today, July 8, 2003, all new construction must adhere to the following height restriction, as found in the Bethany Zoning Regulations, Section 1, Definition of "Building Height":

The vertical distance from the highest point of the roof to the lowest level of the outside adjacent ground, measured ten (10) feet from the building wall.

Decks will no longer be considered when determining the height factor.

Sincerely,

Sharon Huxley, Chair
Planning & Zoning Commission
